

We listen to K-Love 91.1 FM which is of exceedingly great value to us, since it brings family friendly programming. Especially helpful are updates and news about worthwhile events in our local (Denver) area. It would be of great loss if this station would be displaced by some LPFM broadcaster providing other programming, since the KLOVE offering is totally unique.